For over 30 years, Langara Fishing Adventures has built its reputation on providing the greatest fishing and wildlife adventures in the world. At Langara Fishing Lodge, you'll enjoy first-class service, gourmet dining and comfortable accommodations in one of North America's most remote and scenic destinations – Langara Island, in British Columbia's Haida Gwaii archipelago.

Come feel the thrill of reeling in a mighty Pacific salmon or halibut – at Langara, you'll be fishing just minutes from the lodge in waters that play host to the greatest abundance of migratory salmon in North America.

Witness dramatic wildlife in one of the world's richest marine environments – a typical trip to Langara Island will feature numerous sightings of Humpback and Killer whales, and a countless variety of interesting fish, bird and marine mammal species.

And discover the natural beauty and native history of Canada's remote Haida Gwaii islands – this is a spectacular corner of the world that few people have a chance to explore. Guests can tour the remains of an ancient Haida village, featuring totem poles that still stand guard along nearby shores.

Langara Island's sheltered waters, and the option of fishing with expert guides, make this a terrific experience for both serious and novice anglers. Your Langara adventure is all-inclusive from Vancouver, including air travel to Haida Gwaii and a scenic helicopter flight to the lodge.

High standards of service, spectacular natural surroundings, and the greatest ocean salmon fishing in the world, make Langara Fishing Lodge the trip of a lifetime!
